Financial Services Guide

Financial Services Guide

Version [PLACEHOLDER: version] · Date [PLACEHOLDER: date of this document]
This Financial Services Guide (FSG) is an important document. It is designed to help you decide whether to use the financial services we offer. It explains who we are, the services we provide, how we and others are paid, any relationships that might influence our services, and what to do if you have a complaint. Please keep it for reference.

Who we are and who we act for

[PLACEHOLDER: legal name of the brokerage] (ABN [PLACEHOLDER: ABN]) — licence details: [PLACEHOLDER: AFSL number — or Authorised Representative number and the name + AFSL of the licensee].
Address: [PLACEHOLDER: street address]
Contact: [PLACEHOLDER: phone, email and website]
[PLACEHOLDER: licensee name and AFSL number] is responsible for the financial services we provide under this FSG. When we arrange insurance we usually act for you, not the insurer. If we ever act under a binder or agency for an insurer, we will tell you before we provide that service.

Financial services and products we provide

We are authorised to advise on and deal in general insurance products, including arranging cover, renewals, changes (endorsements) and helping you with claims. [PLACEHOLDER: list classes of insurance, e.g. motor, property, liability, business packages, and any premium funding].

Other documents you may receive

If we give you personal advice we will give you a Statement of Advice (SOA) where the law requires one. Before you buy a product you will receive the insurer's Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) and, where relevant, its Target Market Determination (TMD). PDSs and TMDs are issued by the insurer, not by us.

General advice and personal advice

General advice does not take into account your objectives, financial situation or needs. Before acting on general advice you should consider whether it is appropriate for you and read the relevant PDS. Personal advice takes your circumstances into account; if you are a retail client and we give you personal advice, we will explain the basis of our advice.

How we are paid

Commission: we usually receive a commission from the insurer, calculated as a percentage of the base premium (excluding taxes and charges). [PLACEHOLDER: commission rates or ranges, e.g. 0%–25% of base premium, by class of insurance].
Fees: [PLACEHOLDER: broker fees charged and how they are calculated].
Our staff: [PLACEHOLDER: how staff are paid, e.g. salary and any bonuses].
If you are a retail client, details of the commission and fees for a particular product will be provided when we give you advice or arrange the product, or you can ask us at any time. If a policy is cancelled we may keep our fee and commission unless the law or the insurer requires otherwise.

Associations and relationships

[PLACEHOLDER: associations, relationships, premium funders, referral arrangements]. We will tell you about any conflict of interest that could reasonably be expected to influence the services we provide.

Your privacy

We collect personal information to arrange and manage your insurance and claims, and we share it with insurers and others as described in our Privacy Policy. Our Privacy Policy explains how to access or correct your information and how to complain. [PLACEHOLDER: where the Privacy Policy is available].

If you have a complaint

Please tell us first so we can try to fix it. Contact: [PLACEHOLDER: complaints officer name, phone, email, postal address].
We will acknowledge your complaint within 1 business day (or as soon as practicable) and give you a written response within 30 calendar days. If you are not satisfied with our response, or we haven't responded in time, you can contact AFCA, a free and independent external dispute resolution scheme:
Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA)
Website: www.afca.org.au
Phone: 1800 931 678 (free call)
Email: info@afca.org.au
Mail: GPO Box 3, Melbourne VIC 3001
Time limits may apply to complaints to AFCA, so you should act promptly.

Compensation arrangements

[PLACEHOLDER: professional indemnity insurance and compensation arrangements (s912B)]. These arrangements are designed to meet the compensation requirements of section 912B of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and cover the conduct of current and former representatives, subject to the policy terms.
